

YES ABRIDGED DICTIONARY

TERM	ABBREVIATED MEANING abandoned	..... left without protection, support, or help abstain	..... to voluntarily refrain from something abundant	..... marked by great plenty; plentiful abused	..... mistreated; used or treated wrongly; berated; insulted abyss	..... the bottomless pit, the primeval chaos; ·hell accompanied	..... went along with someone or something accompany	..... to go with an associate on equal terms accomplishments	..... achievements accurately	..... without error or mistake accusation	..... a charge of fault, offense, or lawbreaking acknowledge	..... to recognize, admit, or confess acknowledges	.... recognizes, admits, or confesses acquaintances	.... persons who are known, but are not particularly close friends acquainted	..... known personally acquittal	..... a setting free from a legal charge; a verdict of not guilty adorning	..... beautifying; decorating with ornaments adornment	..... the action or state of being adorned, decorated, and beautified adultery	..... voluntary sexual intercourse between a married person and someone other than his or her spouse afterwards	..... at a later time; subsequently agonized	..... suffered extreme pain or violent anguish; struggled in distress aground	..... (a ship) stranded on the shore or the bottom of a body of water alabaster	..... a fine-textured white and translucent gypsum stone alarmed	..... terrified; disturbed; excited by danger alert	..... vigilantly attentive; watchful; keen; mentally quick allegory	..... a story with an underlying, symbolic meaning altar	..... place where sacrifices are offered or incense is burned amethyst	..... a purple or violet crystallized quartz often used in jewelry angels	..... spirit beings used by God to accomplish his will anguish ..... extreme pain, distress, or anxiety announce ..... to make known publicly annulled ..... cancelled; reduced to nothing annuls ..... does away with; reduces to nothing; cancels anoint ..... to apply oil to, especially in a religious ceremony antichrist ..... one who denies or opposes Christ, one fallen away from Jesus' Kingdom anxieties ..... abnormal and overwhelming feelings of apprehension and fear anxiety ..... a state of uneasiness; worry; apprehension apostleship ..... the office of one sent out by Jesus to preach the gospel apparel ..... clothes; dress; personal clothing approached ..... drew closer to; came nearer approaching ..... drawing closer to; coming nearer appropriate ..... adjective (short "a" in last syllable): especially suitable, proper ..... verb (long "a" in last syllable): to set apart for specific use arbitrator ..... a person chosen to settle differences between disputing parties archangel ..... a chief angel arisen ..... has gotten up; has emerged from a sitting or lying position aroma ..... a pleasant smell aromatic ..... having a distinct and pleasant smell aroused ..... awakened from sleep or complacency arrest ..... to put into custody; or, to bring to a stop arrived ..... reached a destination arrogance ..... an attitude of superiority; pride arrogant ..... haughty; overbearingly proud ascended ..... rose gradually upward ascertain ..... to find out; to discover through investigation assassins ..... those who carry out a plot to kill a public official assembled ..... congregated; gathered together in a group assert ..... to state or declare positively assure ..... to make certain; to inform confidently; to insure astonished ..... filled with sudden wonder or amazement athletic ..... physically active and strong; agile and well-coordinated auditorium ..... a room or a building that accommodates an audience authority ..... the right and power to command, influence, or control babble ..... to talk foolishly; to utter incoherent, meaningless sounds Babylon ..... an ancient city devoted to materialism and sensual pleasure banished ..... forced to leave a country by official decree; exiled barbarian ..... a person regarded as culturally inferior, savage, and uncivilized barracks ..... buildings used for housing soldiers barren ..... infertile; sterile; incapable of producing offspring barricades ..... obstructions or barriers set up across a passageway basin ..... a round, open pan with sloping sides, used for holding water batch ..... the amount produced for one operation, as in baking bread bear ..... to carry or support; to endure bears up ..... supports beckoned ..... summoned, usually with a nod or a wave Beelzebub ..... Satan, the prince of demons beforehand ..... in advance; ahead of time begotten ..... sired; procreated; fathered behavior ..... the way someone or something behaves; deportment; demeanor beheaded ..... decapitated; separated the head from the body benefactors ..... those who make gifts or confer benefits benefit ..... an act of kindness; that which promotes the well-being of others benefitted ..... received a benefit or an act of kindness beryl ..... a hard-mineral rock of various colors: green, yellow, pink beseech ..... to beg for something urgently and anxiously betrayer ..... one who delivers someone to an enemy by treachery bewildered ..... confused; befuddled bitterly ..... marked by severe pain, suffering, or animosity bitterness ..... severe pain, grief, regret, or resentment blackmail ..... to obtain something by threats, especially of public exposure blameless ..... without fault or guilt blasphemes ..... speaks with contempt, abuse, and disrespect blindfolded ..... covered the eyes with a cloth blinking ..... closing and opening the eyes rapidly boarded ..... entered or went aboard a vehicle or a ship boasters ..... those who brag; braggarts boldness ..... fearlessness in the face of danger courage borne ..... has given birth to; or, has carried a burden borrow ..... to obtain something from another, intending to return it bought ..... purchased, usually with money bound ..... placed under restraint brazenly ..... marked by boldness; boldly breastplate ..... metal armor worn over the breast breed ..... to produce by hatching or gestation; reproduce; engender bridegroom's ..... belonging to a man just married or about to be married brimstone ..... sulfur brood ..... offspring; usually a group of young animals such as chickens bruised ..... injured by a blow, discoloring but not breaking the skin buffet ..... to strike with the hand or fist burdened ..... loaded down; oppressed burdensome ..... very heavy; hard to bear burnt-offerings ..... items, usually animals, burnt on an altar and offered to God bury ..... to deposit in the earth; to cover up, immerse, or submerge busybodies ..... those who meddle in other people's affairs bystanders ..... those who stand by and look on but do not get involved byways ..... side roads that are little-traveled calamity ..... a state of deep distress or misery caused by misfortune or loss called-out ..... summoned; separated; set apart camel ..... a large animal used for draft or saddle in desert regions canceled ..... set aside; deactivated; rendered invalid caravan a company of travelers on a journey through hostile regions carcass ..... a dead body cargo ..... goods or merchandise conveyed by ship or other vehicle; freight carnelian ..... a hard, translucent quartz rock of reddish color used in jewelry carob ..... a Mediterranean evergreen tree carousing drunken revelry carpenter's belonging to a workman who builds or repairs wooden structures

celebrate ..... to observe and commemorate by ceremony or festivity census ..... a numbering of the population centurion ..... an officer in the Roman army who commanded 100 soldiers

certified ..... affirmed; attested to authoritatively chalcedony ..... a translucent quartz, commonly pale blue or gray challenged ..... called to action; confronted with a problem or demand changers ..... those who change things such as money character ..... qualities and attributes that distinguish an individual charcoal ..... porous carbon that is used for cooking or heating charged ..... accused or blamed; required to pay the price for something

chariots ..... two-wheeled horse-drawn battle cars used in the ancient world

chaste ..... pure in thought and act cheerfully ..... merrily, done in good spirits cherubs ..... an order of angelic beings

Christ ..... Jesus, the anointed messiah, foretold by the prophets chrysolite ..... olivine, a yellow-greenish mineral chrysoprase ..... an apple-green chalcedony valued as a gem circuit ..... a circular line encompassing an area circumcise to cut off the foreskin of a male circumstances .... conditions, facts, or events accompanying something clanging ..... a loud metallic ringing sound clear-headed ..... having a clear understanding, unclouded thinking, perspective

clinging ..... holding tight; adhering; sticking to co-workers ..... fellow-laborers collapsed ..... broke down completely; fell collections ..... funds or materials gathered from several people colt ..... a young male horse or donkey, untamed and never ridden commandment ... something ordered or commanded by one in authority commended ..... recommended as worthy of, confidence; praised commission an authorization or command to act in behalf of another

committing .....performing; bringing about; also, pledging commotion .....a disturbance; a condition of unrest and agitation companions .....comrades; associates; those who accompany others comparison .....placing side by side to establish similarities and dissimilarities compassion .....sympathy for another's distress and a desire to alleviate it compelled .....constrained; driven or urged with force compete .....to vie with another for a prize complaint .....expression of dissatisfaction completely .....totally; absolutely completer .....one who finishes a task, bringing it to completion compulsion .....irresistible impulse to act in a certain way compulsory .....mandatory conceited having an excessively high opinion of oneself; vain; fanciful conception .....the act of becoming pregnant.; or, forming an idea in the mind condemnation ....blame; censure; the state of being condemned condemned .....declared to be wrong or guilty of an offense; blamed; censured condition .....a stipulation; a prerequisite; or a state of being conferred .....granted; bestowed; or, talked things over confessing .....professing; owning up to something; admitting confirmation .....verification; approval confirming .....verifying; approving by formal consent confronted .....opposed; faced up to boldly congenial .....having the same nature, disposition, tastes, or ideas congregation .....an assembly of people; a gathering congregations ....groups of people that have assembled conscience .....a person's internal sense of right and wrong consecration .....dedication to a sacred purpose consequently .....as a result of consoling .....easing the grief or sorrow of another; comforting conspiracy .....a plot; a secret plan to do something wrong conspired .....plotted; joined in a secret agreement to do wrong constricted .....compressed; squeezed; drew or drawn together consumed .....destroyed; done away with consummation ...fulfillment; completion; the end contemporary .....happening, existing, or living in the same period of time contempt .....scorn; disdain; willful disobedience; opposite of respect contemptuously . scornfully; with disdain and contempt content .....(accent on second syllable): satisfied; free from care .....(accent on first syllable): substance; something contained contentious .....quarrelsome; given to arguing and disputing continually .....always; without stopping; ongoing contradicted .....asserted a contrary view contradictory .....opposite; contrary contrary .....opposite; incompatible with something else contribution .....a common fund; or, a gift to a cause or a common fund contrived .....planned; schemed; plotted controversies .....disputes or quarrels; arguments over differences of opinion controversy .....a dispute, quarrel, or debate convert .....verb (accent last syllable): to change from one thing to another .....noun (accent first syllable): one who has changed his beliefs convulsions .....spasms; violent and involuntary contractions of the muscles cooperated .....worked together corpses .....dead human bodies council .....a group elected or appointed as a legislative body counsel .....verb: to give advice or guidance by talking things over .....noun: the advice or guidance received from others counselor .....advisor; lawyer; a person who gives counsel courageously .....bravely; boldly covenant .....a solemn agreement between two parties covetousness .....craving for the possessions of another; greed cowardice .....lack of courage; faint-heartedness craftiness .....cunning; skill in deceiving others crave .....to strongly desire; to yearn and long for Creation .....the material universe; all things created by God Creator .....God, the one who brought something new and original into being crisis .....a turning point in life; a time of distress and decision crosscurrents .....currents running counter to the general forward direction crucify ..... to put a person to death by nailing or binding him to a cross cruelly ..... fiercely inflicting pain upon others cumin ..... a plant of the carob family grown for its aromatic seeds cunning ..... clever; sly cursing ..... invoking harm or misfortune on someone; or, using profanity custody ..... the state of being kept or guarded; imprisonment customary ..... usual; according to custom dare ..... to ask someone to prove his courage; or, to courageously try dawned ..... began to get light in the morning debating ..... arguing; contending for or against some thing debauchery ..... extreme indulgence in sensuality debt ..... that which is owed to another; sin; trespass deceit ..... trick; deception deceitfulness ..... deceptiveness; willingness to lie to and deceive others deceived ..... cheated; misled deceiver ..... one who cheats or misleads deceivings ..... those things said or done to cheat or mislead others; lies deceptively ..... falsely; fraudulently; misleadingly declaration ..... announcement; an open statement decorate ..... to adorn; to honor or beautify with something ornamental dedication ..... commitment to God; set apart for a sacred purpose depraved ..... corrupted; perverted deprive ..... to remove; to take away by force descendants ..... those who descend from a common ancestor; offspring desecrate ..... to profane; to violate the sanctity of something holy deserved ..... merited or earned deserving ..... meriting; proving to be worthy of desirable ..... attractive; worth seeking and having desolation ..... the state of being ruined, laid waste, lonely, and deserted despise ..... to look down on with contempt or disdain despisers ..... those who despise others despondent ..... feeling or showing profound hopelessness, discouragement, gloom destitute ..... suffering extreme want; penniless; or, altogether lacking destroyer ..... one that kills or annihilates destruction ..... ruin; or the act of destroying or being destroyed detestable ..... abominable, hateful, arousing intense dislike deviated ..... departed from acceptable behavioral norms or standards devil ..... demon; fiend; powerful evil spirit that opposes God's will devour ..... to eat up greedily diabolical ..... devilish diadems ..... crowns; regal headbands dilemma ..... an argument with two or more equally conclusive alternatives diligently ..... characterized by steady, earnest effort; busily; painstakingly dill ..... an herb used in flavoring food directions ..... guidelines and instructions for action or conduct disappeared ..... passed from view disappearing ..... passing from view disapproved ..... condemned; rejected; refused to approve disciples ..... followers or students of (See Introductory Lesson) disclosure ..... exposure; revelation discriminate ..... to distinguish; to make a distinction; to use good judgment discriminating ..... making a distinction; distinguishing; using good judgment diseases ..... sicknesses; impairments of the normal functions of the body disfigure ..... to spoil the appearance of something or someone; to deface disgraces ..... brings humiliation and shame to another dishonored ..... treated in a degrading manner dislocated ..... out of place disobedient ..... in rebellion, refusing to obey disorderly ..... unruly; turbulent; marked by disorder dispersion ..... the state of being broken up, scattered, and widely spread displayed ..... put on display.; spread out before others; showed or was shown disposed ..... inclined; having a certain tendency, disposition, or inclination disposition ..... prevailing tendency or mood disregarded ..... paid no attention to; ignored; neglected disrepute ..... disgrace dissension ..... disagreement; discord dissensions ..... multiple disagreements; discords distinction ..... differentiation; a difference; personal excellence distraction ..... that which diverts attention and leads to mental confusion distressed ..... greatly troubled in body or mind; in anguish; under great strain distribute ..... to divide among several or many disturbances ..... interruptions; things which destroy order and tranquility disturbed ..... verb: disrupted the order and tranquility of something ..... adjective: someone with symptoms of emotional illness divided ..... separated into parts or pieces divine ..... of, relating to, or proceeding from God divorce ..... the dissolution of a marriage doctrine ..... teaching; instruction domain ..... a sphere of ownership, influence, activity, and dominion dominion ..... sovereignty; supreme authority donkey ..... a small beast of burden double-tongued .. a person who speaks both truths and lies dough ..... a thick, pliable mixture of flour, liquid, and other ingredients downcast ..... dejected; sad downtrodden ..... trampled down; oppressed dragnet ..... a net drawn along the bottom of a body of water drink-offering ..... wine or some other liquid offered in a religious ritual dropsy ..... edema; an abnormal accumulation of fluid in bodily tissues drunkard ..... one who is habitually intoxicated by alcohol dues ..... fees; charges; a charge or fee for membership dull ..... slow to learn or act; sluggish; not sharp dung ..... manure; excrement dungheap ..... manure pile dwelling-place .... shelter; house; the place where a person lives earnestness ..... zeal; strength of purpose; seriousness earthquakes ..... trembling movements of the earth's surface easier ..... simpler; less difficult Egypt ..... country in the northeast coastal section of Africa elaborate .....verb (long "a" in last syllable): to develop; to give details .....adjective (short "a" in last syllable): complex; detailed embark .....to go on board a boat or airplane; to commence a journey emboldened .....instilled with boldness or courage emphatically .....expressed in forceful speech or action; strongly expressed encircle .....to form a circle around something; to surround encircles .....girds; encompasses enclosed .....closed in; surrounded endowment .....money or property given to furnish an income endures .....lasts enemies .....those who are hostile; adversaries enlarge .....to make larger; extend enlightened .....freed from ignorance and misinformation; informed enlightens .....illuminates; informs; instructs enslaved .....deprived of freedom; subjected to another; reduced to servitude ensnare .....to catch; to trap entangled .....wrapped or twisted together so that disengagement is difficult entangles .....wraps or twists together enthusiastic .....excited; passionate; inspired entrails .....internal parts; intestines; guts entrap .....to catch in a trap envious .....begrudging another person's possessions or accomplishments

Epicurean .....a follower of Epicurus, a Greek philosopher devoted to pleasure epileptic .....a person with epilepsy, a disorder marked by convulsions established .....instituted or built on a firm foundation esteemed .....highly valued; highly regarded as worthy estranged .....separated; kept apart eternal .....everlasting; never ending eunuchs .....castrated men; men or boys deprived of their testes evangelist .....a person who proclaims the good news about Jesus Christ everlasting .....lasting forever; never ending; eternal everything .....all that exists; all things evil .....morally bad or wrong; sinful; wicked; injurious; harmful exact ..... strictly accurate; precise; or, verb: to force the payment of excellency ..... the quality of excellence; superiority excellent ..... superior; unusually high in quality; meritorious exchange ..... to give or take one thing in return for another exclaimed ..... spoke or cried out with sudden emotion exclude ..... to shut out; to prevent from entering a place or group; to expel exempt ..... set free from a duty or obligation exercises ..... exerts; makes use of rights and powers; or, drills exhortation ..... language used to urge, warn, or encourage exile ..... to banish; to force a person to leave his home or country existed ..... had real being expectantly ..... looking forward with anticipation to something expected expectation ..... the act or state of anticipating something hoped for or awaited expel ..... to force out; to eject forcefully; to drive out expelled ..... forced out; ejected forcefully; driven out. explicitly ..... fully revealed; clearly expressed; distinctly stated extensive ..... great in amount, extend, or range extinguish ..... to cause to cease burning; to quench; to put out a fire extort ..... to obtain something (usually money) by force or intimidation extortioners ..... those who obtain from others by force or intimidation extraordinary ..... beyond that which is regular or ordinary; unusual exultation ..... jubilation; great rejoicing eye ..... an organ of sight eye-service ..... serving only to be seen and praised by others eyewitnesses ..... those who have actually seen something and can testify to it fabulously ..... wonderfully; marvelously; amazingly factious ..... fond of stirring up disputes and causing division faith ..... (see Introductory Lesson) faithfulness ..... steadfast loyalty; constant trust; obedience arising from faith falsehood ..... a lie; an untrue statement falsifying ..... misrepresenting the facts; making false statements; lying famines ..... times of extreme food shortage fasted .....abstained from food fault .....flaw; defect; an imperfection; a mistake faultless .....having no fault; irreproachable; without flaw or defect fellow-citizens ....people from the same town, area, or nation fellow-craftsmen those who share the same craft or handiwork fellow-heirs .....those who share an inheritance fellowship .....companionship; comradeship; a union of friends; togetherness

female .....a person of the female sex; a woman or girl fervently .....earnestly; ardently; showing great intensity of feeling fetter .....a chain or shackle attached to the ankles; restraints feuds .....protracted quarrels fever .....abnormally high body temperature; intense activity and enthusiasm fiancée .....a girl or woman engaged to be married fierceness .....unrestrained violence and brutality figurehead .....a carved figure on the prow of a ship; a leader in name only finished .....brought to an end; terminated firstborn .....eldest; first child born in a family firstfruits .....earliest fruits gathered and offered to God with thanksgiving fishers .....those who attempt to catch fish fittingly .....appropriately; suitably; properly flaw .....defect; fault; an imperfection; a small crack or fissure flight .....motion through air or space, usually by means of wings flog .....to beat with a rod or whip footstool .....a low stool for supporting the feet forbad .....ordered not to do something; prohibited forbearance .....refraining from the enforcement of something; patient endurance forcefully .....effectively; powerfully; vigorously; with force forefather .....ancestor; progenitor; the founder of a clan, tribe, or nation foreigner .....stranger; person belonging to another country foresaw .....saw beforehand; envisioned foresight .....ability to look ahead and see what is likely to happen forgiven .....pardoned; released from an obligation or penalty; absolved forgiveness .....pardon; remission of an obligation or penalty form .....shape or structure of something fornication .....sexual intercourse except between husband and wife; unchastity forsake .....to abandon; to give up; to renounce; to leave altogether forsaken .....abandoned; left; renounced forsaking .....abandoning; giving up; leaving altogether foundation .....a base upon which something stands; an underlying support founded .....transitive verb: built on a foundation .....intransitive verb: was built on a foundation fragments .....parts broken off or detached fragrant .....marked by fragrance; sweet smelling frankincense .....a fragrant gum res in chiefly from Arabian or East African trees freedman .....a man released from slavery frightened .....afraid; scared frightening .....something producing fear fringe .....border (usually around a garment) fulfill .....to satisfy; to complete full-grown .....mature; fully grown fullness .....being full; having the full amount furious .....exhibiting wild anger; raging furnace .....an enclosed structure in which a fire is built for heat futile .....incapable of producing any result; ineffective; useless; vain futility .....quality of being futile, useless, or ineffective gained .....acquired; secured; obtained; got gangrene .....the death of soft tissues from the loss of a blood supply gardener .....one who cultivates the soil to grow fruits, vegetables, flowers garment .....an article of clothing garrison .....a military post genealogies .....lists or tables of ancestors generosity .....readiness or liberality in giving Gentiles .....all persons who are non-Jewish genuineness .....authenticity; freedom from hypocrisy or pretense ghost .....soul; seat of life and intelligence; spirit glorify ..... to bestow honor upon; to praise; to express admiration. glorious ..... illustrious; magnificent; splendid; full of glory glory ..... praise; honor; magnificent splendor glutton ..... one who habitually eats too much; one enslaved to food and drink gnashing ..... grinding together gnat ..... a small, biting, two-winged fly God ..... (See Introductory Lesson.) God-breathed ..... inspired by God godliness ..... being like God; piety good ..... something conforming to moral order; praiseworthy in character goodwill ..... a kind, benevolent, friendly disposition or attitude gospel ..... the good news concerning Christ, the kingdom of God, and salvation gouge ..... to cut or scoop out with the thumb or a sharp instrument graciousness ..... compassion; mercy; courtesy; kindness gradually ..... proceeding slowly by steps and degrees grandmother ..... the mother of one's father or mother grandeur ..... magnificence; the quality of being grand or wonderful greedy ..... having a strong desire for more than one's share; covetous greeting ..... a salutation; opening remarks grieved ..... beset by grief, sadness, or sorrow grinding ..... crushing, pulverizing, polishing, or sharpening by friction groanings ..... deep moans of pain, grief, or annoyance grumbling ..... muttering in discontent; complaining guarantee ..... a formal assurance that something is as represented or promised guardians ..... those assigned to protect or oversee others guiltless ..... innocent; without guilt Hades ..... the abode of the dead; Sheol, grave hail ..... salute; greet; or, an exclamation of greeting or acclamation hair-braiding ..... twisting strands of hair together, sometimes with gems or ribbon half-shekel ..... half of a silver Hebrew coin weighing one fourth of an ounce

Hallelujah ..... an exclamation of praise, joy, and thanks to God handiwork ..... work performed with the hands hang ..... to suspend; to fasten to something without support from below harnessed ..... equipped with a harness (as straps connecting a horse to a plow) haughty ..... arrogant; blatantly and disdainfully proud headfirst ..... with the head foremost headquarters ..... the administrative center of an enterprise; center of command headstrong ..... stubborn; not easily restrained or influenced healings ..... cures; cases in which the sick were made well again healthy ..... well; sound; hale; robust; whole; in good health heartily ..... vigorously; with sincerity and enthusiasm heathen ..... uncivilized; unenlightened Heaven ..... the spiritual abode of God and the angels heavier ..... having greater weight than something else hedgerows ..... rows of shrubs or trees enclosing or separating fields height ..... highest point; summit; the measurement from bottom to top heir ..... one who inherits property Hell ..... the abode of Satan and evil spirits for eternity, after Judgement helper ..... a worker who assists another worker hemorrhage ..... a copious discharge of blood; uncontrolled bleeding hereafter ..... existence beyond the earthly life hesitation ..... a pause or delay due to uncertainty of mind; indecision high-flown ..... extravagant; aspiring; excessively high hindered ..... held back; stopped; prevented from making progress hinders ..... slows the progress of; holds back; impedes; prevents progress historian ..... one who studies and writes about history hoard ..... verb: to hide away and store up for the future
..... noun: a hidden supply; things stored up and guarded holiness ..... purity; being separated from evil holy ..... separated from evil; removed from sin and corruption Holy Spirit ..... the third member of the Godhead, eternal One homeland .....native land; fatherland; land of one's birth homeless .....without a place to reside hometown .....town where a person was born and reared homosexuals .....those who exhibit sexual desire for members of their own sex honor .....respect; public esteem; good reputation; recognition honorable .....deserving of honor, respect, and esteem honorarium .....payment for professional services on which no price is set Hosanna .....a shout of praise, acclamation, and adoration hospitable .....ready to give cordial treatment, food, and shelter to guests hostilities .....acts of warfare humble .....lowly; meek; courteously respectful toward others; not haughty humble-minded ..exhibiting a genuine lack of pride and arrogance humiliate .....to shame and disgrace someone; to destroy one's self-esteem humiliation .....a loss of dignity and self-respect; abasement humility .....a modest sense of one's own rank or importance hurtfully .....inflicting hurt or injury upon others; injuriously hymn .....a song honoring and praising God hypocrites .....those who pretend to have virtues they don't have hyssop .....a plant used by the ancient Hebrews in purification rites idle .....inactive; not occupied or employed idolater .....a worshipper of idols ill-treated .....treated cruelly or improperly ill-will .....malice; unfriendly feeling image .....a reproduction of the form of a person or thing imitators .....those who follow an example, model, or pattern immeasurable ....beyond measure; incapable of being measured immediately .....straightway; without an interval of time immersed .....dipped; plunged under; submerged immerser .....someone who immerses others in water immersing .....dipping, plunging, or submerging someone immersion.....complete submersion of a person in water, not sprinkling or pouring immorality .....unchastity; impurity; behavior inconsistent with good morals immortality ..... unending existence with God impartial ..... without bias; without partiality impartiality ..... equity; fairness; justice; lack of prejudice impediment ..... an organic obstruction to speech impels ..... urges onward, often through the force of strong moral pressure imperishability ..... the quality of being indestructible and not subject to decay imperishable ..... not subject to decay, lasting forever implanted ..... set deeply and permanently in the consciousness; instilled impoverished ..... made poor; depleted; reduced to poverty imprisonment ..... confinement in prison improper ..... not in accord with modesty and propriety; incorrect; indecent impurely ..... lewdly; characterized by unchastity or obscenity inanimate ..... not endowed with life, spirit, consciousness, or mobility incense ..... material which produces a fragrant odor when burned inches ..... a unit of length equal to 1/12 of a foot and 1/36 of a yard incited ..... stirred up; spurred on; moved to action incites ..... instigates; foments; moves to action inclination ..... natural disposition or tendency toward something; propensity incompletely ..... imperfectly, without having been completed or finished inconsistent ..... containing incompatible elements; illogical in thought or action indeed ..... in reality; without question; truly; undeniably indestructible ..... imperishable; incapable of being destroyed indistinct ..... not sharply outlined; not clearly recognizable or understandable indistinctly ..... uncertainly; faintly; dimly; unclearly individually ..... in an individual and personally unique manner; one by one inescapable ..... incapable of being avoided, denied, or ignored inexpressible ..... not capable of being expressed; indescribable inferior ..... lower in importance, merit, quality, rank, or value infinitely ..... endlessly; without limitation infirmities ..... physical or moral weaknesses; frailties infirmity ..... weakness; frailty; sickness inflamed ..... set on fire; kindled inflated .....blown up with air; distended; puffed up; bloated inherit .....to come into possession of an inheritance injustice .....unfairness; inequity; violation of human rights innocent .....free from guilt; blameless inquire .....to ask about; to investigate; to look into inquirer .....one who inquires or asks about something insane .....mentally deranged; mad; incapable of managing one's own affairs inscribed .....written; engraved; printed as a lasting record inscription .....something that has been written or inscribed insensitive .....not sensitive; unfeeling; apathetic; deficient in sensibility instantly .....immediately; without delay instructed .....taught; informed insult ..... verb: to treat with contempt and indignity; to offend

..... noun: a gross indignity; an affront; rudeness insults .....noun: slanderous remarks and accusations;
..... verb: slanders; offends insurrection .....open revolt against civil authority or a constituted government intentions .....resolutions; purposes; objectives; things that one plans to do intercedes .....intervenes between parties to reconcile differences; mediates intercessions .....entreaties or petitions in behalf of another intercourse .....dealings or communication between people; or, sexual relations interior .....inner; situated inside interpretation .....an explanation; elucidation; explication intreat .....old form of "entreat"; to plead; to ask earnestly and urgently investment .....the investing of something in order to secure profitable returns irreconcilable .....incapable of being brought into harmony irreligious .....lacking in religious emotions, beliefs, or practices irreverence .....lack of reverence, awe, respect, or worship irritable .....easily irritated, annoyed, exasperated, or angered Israel .....the name given to Jacob and his descendants jacinth ..... an orange colored gem jasper ..... an opaque quartz stone of various colors--green, black, white Jesus ..... (see Introductory Lesson) joined ..... brought together to form a unit judgment ..... a formal decision by a court; a divine sentence; discernment jurisdiction ..... the power, right, or authority to govern or legislate just ..... morally right or good; righteous justification ..... vindication; the state of being justified by God justified ..... shown to be just and right; declared blameless; acquitted justifies ..... declares guiltless; absolves; vindicates; exonerates keystone ..... the important wedge-shaped stone at the top of an arch kin ..... one's relatives; clan; a group of people of common ancestry kindled ..... started a fire; stirred up; aroused lack ..... to be short of something or to have need; to be deficient landowner ..... one who owns land laundryman ..... a male laundry worker; one who cleans, washes, and irons clothes law ..... a rule of conduct prescribed and enforced by an authority lawbreaker ..... one who violates the law lawful ..... the state of being in harmony with the law lawlessness ..... the state of acting contrary to or without regard to the law lawsuit ..... a prosecution of a claim in a court of law lazy ..... having an aversion to work, activity, or exertion; indolent leaven ..... a substance such as yeast used to induce fermentation in dough lender ..... one who loans something out expecting it to be returned lenient ..... a tolerant disposition; indulgent; gentle; liberal leper ..... a person afflicted with leprosy lest ..... for fear that lewd ..... sexually unchaste or licentious; obscene; salacious; lascivious liable ..... obligated according to law; responsible; apt liars ..... those who tell lies liberated ..... released from bondage; set free life-giving ..... capable of giving life; invigorating ligament ..... a tough band of tissue connecting and supporting parts of the body light ..... electromagnetic radiation perceived by the eye; or, illumination light-bringing ..... something that brings light and illumination lightning ..... a flash of light in a cloud caused by an electrical discharge likeness ..... the quality of being like something or someone; resemblance likewise ..... in like manner; similarly; also lilies ..... bulbous trumpet-shaped flowers lineage ..... the line of descent from a certain ancestor loaves ..... shaped or molded masses of bread loftiest ..... highest; noblest; most highly elevated in character or spirit loins ..... hips and abdomen area, the seat of reproductive power longsuffering ..... long and patient endurance of injury, trouble, or provocation lordship ..... the authority or power of a ruler; dominion; sovereignty love ..... unconditional good will and affection; devotion lowly ..... humble; modest; meek magistrates ..... officials who administer the law magnifies ..... extols; lauds; holds in high esteem maiden ..... an unmarried girl or woman maimed ..... crippled; debilitated by wound or injury; mutilated; disfigured malady ..... disease or disorder male ..... a person of the male sex; a man or a boy malice ..... ill-will; deep-seated dislike; a desire to see someone suffer manager ..... one who manages, handles, or controls something for someone else manifold ..... marked by diversity and variety manna ..... food miraculously supplied to the Israelites. in the wilderness manslayers ..... those who slay or kill men marrow ..... the soft substance (fat and blood cells) that fills bone cavities martyr ..... one who sacrifices his life for a cause mature ..... fully grown, developed, aged, or ripened meaningless ..... without meaning, significance, or value measure ..... an adequate or due portion; a measured quantity mediator ..... one who goes between two parties to affect a reconciliation Melchizedek ..... the priest-king of Jerusalem who received tithes from Abraham memorials ..... monuments or ceremonies which commemorate something merchant ..... one who buys and sells commodities for profit merciful ..... compassionate; full of mercy merciless ..... without mercy; pitiless message ..... a communication in writing, speech, or signal messiah ..... the anointed one; the expected king and deliverer of the Jews midday ..... the middle of the day middle ..... central; equally distant from the extremes midst ..... the interior or central point; middle; surrounded by others mill ..... a device used for grinding or crushing grain millstone ..... either of two circular stones used for grinding grain mint ..... an aromatic plant used for flavoring food miracles ..... extraordinary events manifesting divine intervention in history misled ..... led in the wrong direction by deliberate deceit mismatched ..... matched wrongly; unsuitably matched mistiness ..... cloudiness; fogginess; state of being obscured by mist mixture ..... a combination of several kinds of substances or ideas mock ..... to ridicule; to treat with contempt; to mimic, jeer, or scoff modesty ..... freedom from conceit or vanity; propriety in dress and conduct molded ..... shaped in a mold; fitted to the form of a model molest ..... to make indecent advances to; to bother, harass, or torment momentary ..... continuing only a moment; having a brief life; transitory money ..... a medium of exchange; a measure of value; a means of payment moneychangers .. those who exchange one kind of money for another mother-in-law .... the mother of one's spouse moths ..... insects similar to butterflies with larvae that feed on wool mourn ..... to feel and express grief or sorrow movement ..... change of place or position multitudes ..... great numbers; crowds; hosts; masses of people murder ..... to kill a human being with malice or forethought mustard ..... a large, bush-like herb that produces pods and yellow flowers mute ..... unable to speak mutilation ..... the cutting off of a limb or essential part of the human body mutual ..... given and received myriads ..... tens of thousands; innumerable multitudes myrrh ..... a gum resin from a spiny shrub, used for incense and perfume mysteries ..... truths revealed but not fully understood mystery ..... a religious truth that one can know only by revelation myths ..... legends; traditional stories that, serve to explain a world view nard ..... a Himalayan plant, the source of an ointment used by ancients narrative ..... a story of events and experiences, whether true or fictitious natural ..... in accordance with nature's inherent sense of right and wrong Nazareth ..... a town in Northern Israel; the childhood home of Jesus Christ necessities ..... requirements; things that are indispensable needy ..... being in want; poverty-stricken; extremely poor; destitute neighbor ..... a person nearby; one who is kind and helpful neighborhood ..... a place or region nearby; vicinity; proximity nests ..... structures built by birds for their eggs and their young nevertheless ..... in spite of; however; none the less notorious ..... widely but unfavorably known novice ..... a beginner; a person who is new to a situation nowhere ..... at no place; not anywhere nullified ..... deprived of value or effectiveness; rendered legally void nullify ..... to render or declare legally void or inoperative; to invalidate nullifying ..... invalidating; annulling; voiding; cancelling nursing ..... taking care of the sick or infirm oath ..... a solemn appeal to God as witness to the truth being stated obey ..... to comply with or follow the commands of another humbly and accurately obligated ..... legally or morally bound; obliged; liable obligation ..... a binding promise, contract, or sense of duty obligations ..... duties; debts; things that one, as a responsible person, must do obnoxious ..... offensive; repugnant; objectionable; odious obscene ..... offensive to modesty or decency; lewd; disgusting to the senses obstinate ..... stubborn; firmly adhering to one's purpose or opinion occur ..... to take place; to happen occurrence ..... event; incident; happening offended ..... annoyed; displeased; or, violated a rule or law; transgressed offspring ..... child; children; descendant; descendants oftentimes ..... often opponent ..... one who opposes; an adversary; one who is on an opposing side opportune ..... appropriate; favorable; suitable; timely opportunity ..... a favorable combination of circumstances oracles ..... divine communications or revelations ordained ..... decreed; enacted; established by authority; ordered orderliness ..... arrangement according to established order or rule orderly ..... arranged in some order or pattern; methodical; systematic ordinances ..... authoritative rules, decrees, laws, or commands orgies ..... wild parties involving unrestrained indulgence in drink and sex originator ..... one who initiates something or who gives rise to something new ornamented ..... decorated; adorned; highly embellished overcharged ..... charged too high a price for something overextended ..... stretched too thin with reference to time, money, or energy overflow ..... to run over; to flood; to inundate; an excess or surplus overpower .....to overwhelm; to vanquish; to master or subdue by superior force overpowered .....subjugated; conquered; defeated; subdued; beaten overseership .....the office or state of overseeing, supervising, or managing overshadowed .....made insignificant by comparison; covered with clouds and darkness overshadowing ...casting a shadow over; making insignificant by comparison overturned .....destroyed the power of; defeated; or, turned over on its side pagan .....an irreligious person who delights in sensual pleasure pageantry .....spectacular, colorful, rich, splendid display; pomp; show parables .....simple stories illustrating moral or religious lessons paradise .....heaven; the abode of righteous souls after death paralyzed .....unable to move or to feel sensation due to injury of the nerves parchments .....sheep or goat skins prepared for use as writing materials partake .....to take part in or to share in a common experience with others partakers .....those who take part in something with others partiality .....bias; favoritism; prejudice; special fondness partially .....not totally; not completely passerby .....a person passing by

Passover .....a Jewish festival commemorating the exodus of Israel from Egypt patience .....the quality of calm endurance patriarch .....the paternal leader of a family or tribe paupers .....people who are very poor, usually dependent upon others pearls .....round, lustrous deposits formed in some oysters, valued as gems pecks .....verb: strikes with the beak

.....noun: a U.S. unit of volume, 8 quarts, used for dry measure peer .....verb: to look intently .....noun: one who has equal standing with another perish .....to die, especially in a violent manner perishable .....easily destroyed or spoiled permission .....formal consent; authorization permit .....to allow; to authorize; to consent to perplexed ..... confused; puzzled; bewildered perplexity ..... the state of being perplexed, confused, or uncertain persecute ..... to oppress, harass, or injure as punishment for religious faith persisted ..... held firmly and steadfastly to some purpose despite obstacles persuade ..... to cause someone to do or believe something by argument and urging persuading ..... inducing others to believe something or do something; convincing pertaining ..... relating to; having reference to; belonging to perversion ..... the state of being perverted, turned away from the right course pestilences ..... deadly epidemic diseases Pharisees ..... members of an ancient Jewish sect that strictly adhered to law philosophers ..... scholars who inquire into the source and nature of knowledge phylacteries ..... leather cubes containing scriptures worn by Jews during prayers physician ..... a medical doctor physicians ..... medical doctors pigs ..... young swine of either sex weighing less than 120 pounds pit ..... a relatively deep hole in the ground pitching ..... throwing in a specific direction; or, putting up in a position pitiable ..... arousing pity; deserving pity; lamentable; miserable pleasant ..... pleasing in manner or appearance; agreeable; enjoyable plenteous ..... plentiful; abundant; copious; bountiful; more than enough plotting ..... secretly planning; scheming plough (Brit.) ..... noun: a farm implement used for breaking up soil; a plow

..... verb: to break and turn up the earth with a plow plucking ..... pulling off or out from the place of growth plunder ..... to rob of goods or valuables by open force; pillage pods ..... seed vessels, such as peas or beans, that split open possessions ..... things which are owned or possessed posterity ..... all of a person's descendants; future generations postponed ..... delayed until a future time; put off

Potter's ..... a field in Jerusalem where potters found clay for making pottery powerful ..... having great power, force, or influence praised ..... expressed warm approval; offered grateful homage in word or song pray ..... to offer devout petition, praise, or thanks to God preach ..... to proclaim or make known the Good News of Jesus accurately precepts ..... rules or principles which impose a standard of conduct precious ..... of great value; costly; beloved precisely ..... definitely; exactly; correctly; clearly expressed predetermined ... determined or decided in advance prediction ..... a prophecy; a prognostication; a forecast of the future preeminent ..... superior to all others pregnant ..... carrying a developing child within the body preliminary ..... prior to the main action or business; introductory; preparatory prematurely ..... occurring, born, or done too early, before the proper time preparation ..... the act of preparing for something; readiness presence ..... the state or fact of being present or in immediate proximity presentable ..... fit to be seen, inspected, introduced, or offered preserved ..... kept safe from injury, harm, or destruction presumptuous .... excessively forward; inclined to take others for granted pretenses ..... false promises, implications, or actions intended to deceive prevailed ..... triumphed victoriously; proved superior in strength and influence previous ..... existing or occurring prior to something else priest ..... one who performs religious duties as God directs, all New Covenant saints priesthood ..... the office of a priest principalities ..... territories ruled over by princes, whether earthly or heavenly private ..... of or confined to one person; personal proclaimed ..... declared or announced publicly proclaimer ..... one who makes a public proclamation or announcement proconsul ..... governor or military commander of an ancient Roman province producing .....bringing forth; yielding; manufacturing; exhibiting profane .....adjective: characterized by irreverence for God and sacred things

 .....verb: to misuse or defile anything held in reverence and respect profitable .....yielding profit; beneficial; useful prohibited .....forbidden by authority; prevented prominent .....standing out to be easily seen; noticeable; conspicuous prompted .....moved or induced to action prone .....tending; having a natural inclination or tendency pronouncement ..a formal declaration or statement prophesied .....revealed by divine inspiration; predicted; taught prophecies .....makes inspired declarations of divine will and what is to come prophesying .....declaring by inspiration the Will, purposes, and plans of God; teaching prophetess .....an inspired female prophet or teacher prophets .....the prophetic writings of the Hebrew scriptures; males who prophesy and teach correctly proportion .....noun: comparative relation between things as to size and number .....verb: to adjust to attain proper relations between parts propose .....to suggest; to put forward for consideration prosperity .....financial success and well-being prosperous .....wealthy or flourishing; well-to-do; well-off; rich prostitute .....noun: a whore; one who engages in sexual intercourse for money
 .....verb: to sell out to an unworthy cause prostitutes .....women or men who offer themselves for sexual hire proverb .....a short, popular saying expressing a well-known truth; a maxim provoking .....inciting anger or resentment; inciting to action; arousing psalms .....sacred songs or poems used in worship publicly .....openly; in a public or open manner punishment .....a penalty imposed for wrongdoing, usually involving pain or loss purification .....the state of being made pure and clean purified .....made pure and clean, free from anything that pollutes and defiles quarrels .....angry disputes and arguments quarrelsome .....inclined to quarrel rabbi .....a Jewish scholar qualified to rule on questions of Jewish law radiance .....a radiant brightness, usually with radiating rays of light radiant .....emitting light and/or heat; bright; glowing ravenous .....extremely hungry; predatory realms .....kingdoms; spheres; domains reaping .....harvesting with a sickle; receiving reward or punishment rebuked .....criticized sharply; reprovved; reprimanded rebuking .....sharply reprovving reckon .....to count or compute; to regard as recognized .....perceived; identified; acknowledged recompense .....to award. compensation; payment in return for services reconciled .....re-established friendship between; brought back together reconciliation .....the act of reconciling; the state of being reconciled to another recrucifying .....crucifying again redeem .....to recover ownership of something by paying a specified sum redemption .....the act of buying back; the condition of being re-purchased reed .....a tall hollow-stemmed swamp or marsh grass reform.....make a complete change of mind and life to new Way refresh .....to revive as with rest, food, or drink; to make cool and clean refreshment .....something that refreshes; the act of refreshing regardless .....in spite of everything; anyway regeneration .....the state of being born anew, spiritually and morally revitalized regiment .....noun: a military unit of ground troops

.....verb: to force uniformity and discipline; to systematize region .....a district; an area regretful .....full of regret; sorrowful because of what has been done or lost reigned .....ruled with sovereign power rejected ..... transitive verb: refused to accept, recognize, or use

..... intransitive verb: repudiated; refused; discarded released ..... liberated; set free from bondage remaining ..... leftover; surviving; unused; unconsumed; remnant ..... something left over; a remainder; a surviving fragment or scrap render ..... to give or make available; to cause to become;

rendering ..... giving; making available; causing to become renewing ..... making something like new; restoring; taking up again; renewing renowned ..... famous; widely honored and acclaimed repairing ..... restoring to sound condition after damage; or, returning repay ..... to pay back; to refund reprimand ..... verb: to rebuke or censure severely

..... noun: a severe or formal rebuke; reproof reproach ..... verb: to blame someone for something; to rebuke

..... noun: rebuke; blame; disgrace; shame reproof ..... an act of censuring or rebuking; or, an expression of rebuke reputable ..... honorable; having a good reputation; respectable reputation ..... the estimation in which a person is held within a community requested ..... asked for something; asked someone to do something; petitioned rescue ..... to save from danger; to deliver from confinement or evil residence ..... the place in which a person lives; a dwelling restoration ..... the act of restoring; the state of being renewed restored ..... brought back into a previous, normal condition; renewed restrains ..... controls; checks; limits; restricts restricted ..... held down; kept within limits; limited resurrection ..... the act of rising again from the dead retaliated ..... repaid in kind; returned evil for evil revealing ..... making known; divulging; disclosing; exposing; bringing to view revelation ..... something revealed; a manifestation of divine Will or Truth revelries ..... boisterous festivities with loud merrymaking revelry ..... boisterous merrymaking, often accompanied by music and dancing revere ..... to regard with awe, respect, or devotion reverence ..... a feeling of profound awe and respect reverent ..... feeling profound awe and respect ridicule ..... words intended to cause contemptuous laughter at another ridiculed ..... mocked; derided; taunted; made fun of rightdoing ..... doing right righteous ..... meeting the standards of what is right and just righteousness ..... the quality or state of being upright, moral, and fair roughly ..... violently; harshly; rudely; crudely; or, approximately Sabbath ..... the 7th day of the week, set aside by Jews for rest and worship sackcloth ..... a rough cloth worn as a sign of mourning or penitence sacred dedicated or set apart for the service and worship of God sacrifice ..... the offering of something to a deity sad-faced ..... having a face characterized by sorrow saliva ..... spit; the watery, tasteless liquid secreted by salivary glands salutation ..... an expression of greeting, good will, and courtesy salvation ..... deliverance from the power and penalty of sin; redemption sanctuary ..... a consecrated house of worship; a place of refuge sand-banks ..... hills or mounds of sand sapphire ..... a form of corundum, usually blue, used as a gemstone sardius ..... a precious stone, perhaps a ruby, in the breastplate of the Jewish high priest sardonyx ..... a chalcedony used for cameos, usually white in color Satan ..... the devil; the chief evil spirit; the great adversary of man savage ..... uncivilized; not domesticated or cultivated; fierce; ferocious save..... remove from danger, eternal destiny reversed savior ..... one who saves from danger or destruction sawn ..... cut with a saw scattered ..... dispersed; distributed loosely by sprinkling or strewing scattering ..... distributing here and there at irregular intervals scepter ..... a staff held by a sovereign ruler as a symbol of authority scheme ..... a systematic plan or design; or, a secret plan scorched ..... slightly burned on the surface; parched scribes ..... professional copyists of manuscripts; writers sea-shore ..... land along the sea or ocean seamless ..... without seam or line caused by sewing together sea-monster ..... a monster of the sea seasoned ..... flavored by herbs and spices; or, made useful by experience secluded ..... set apart from others; screened from view sect ..... a group, party, or faction united by a specific doctrine secure ..... adjective: safe; free from danger; stable; certain ..... verb: to guard from danger or risk of loss; or, to obtain sees ..... perceives with the eye; or, understands; comprehends seize ..... to grasp suddenly and forcibly; to take into legal custody self-abasement . . . humiliation of oneself, especially as a result of guilt or shame self-control ..... control or restraint of oneself, one's actions, or ones feelings self-indulgence ... the act or state of indulging one's own desires and passions self-willed ..... the act or state of stubbornly pursuing one's own wishes and aims senseless ..... without sense or meaning; foolish; or, unconscious sensuality ..... the sensual nature; unrestrained indulgence in sensual pleasure

separated ..... transitive verb: took apart; divided; set apart
..... intransitive verb: were forced or kept apart; were divided
..... adjective: detached; disconnected; consecrated separate ..... verb (long "a" in last syllable): to divide; to sort ..... adjective (short "a" in last syllable): set apart; detached sermon ..... a religious discourse delivered in public severity ..... harshness; sternness; rigor; rigid exactness sexual ..... of or pertaining to sex; having sexual organs for reproduction shabby ..... threadbare; worn-out; seedy shackles ..... metal fetters or manacles around a prisoner's wrists or ankles

shamefully ..... characterized by shame, disgrace, dishonor, and humiliation sheared ..... removed by clipping with a sharp instrument shirt ..... a garment for the upper part of the body shrewdly with keen insight and discernment; astutely; cunningly shrieked ..... cried out with a shrill screech signify ..... to make known by signs, speech, or action; to denote signifying ..... making known by signs, speech, or action similar ..... alike though not identical; related in appearance or nature sincere ..... not feigned or affected; true; genuine; honest sinews ..... tendons; the source of strength, power, and vigor single-hearted ..... undivided in spirit; dedicated; without mixed emotions; sincere single-mindedness ..... the state of being single-minded, having one aim or purpose sins ..... transgressions of God's Way or moral law slandered ..... transitive verb: uttered defamatory statements about a person ..... intransitive verb: was the object of defamatory statements slanderer ..... one who utters injurious, defamatory remarks about someone slandorous ..... of or pertaining to injurious, defamatory remarks about others slandorously ..... talking or writing in such as manner as to defame and injure sonship ..... the state or fact of being a son sorcerer ..... a person supposed to cast spells through the aid of evil spirits sorrowful ..... full of anguish and grief sounding ..... emitting sound; measuring the depth of the sea with lead and line source ..... a point of origin; one who supplies information sovereign ..... a supreme ruler; one who has absolute power and authority sown ..... scattered over the ground for growing a crop; strewn spacious ..... containing much space; occupying much space; vast; roomy specify ..... to state in detail; to mention specifically or definitely speck ..... a small bit or particle spectacle ..... a large public performance or display; a marvel or curiosity speculations ..... conjectural considerations of various matters; theories; guesses speechless ..... unable to speak; lacking the faculty of speech spiritual ..... pertaining to or consisting of man's spirit; response to God's Will spiritually ..... relating to spiritual things or done by means of man's will God's Way splendid ..... brilliant; radiant; magnificent squads ..... the smallest units of military personnel stationing ..... placing a soldier at a post of duty stature ..... the natural height of a person standing in an upright position steadfastness ..... the state of being steadfast, fixed, constant, and loyal stealth ..... a secret, sly, clandestine, surreptitious procedure sternly ..... in a firm, strict, uncompromising manner; severely; harshly stewards ..... those who manage another's property stewardship ..... the office and responsibility of managing another's property stocks ..... an instrument of punishment consisting of a framework with holes for securing the ankles, and sometimes the wrists, of prisoners Stoic ..... a member of the school of philosophy founded by Zeno c. 300 B.C. stomach ..... a large digestive organ in the abdomen; the belly stoop ..... to bend from the waist or middle of the back storerooms ..... rooms in which things are stored storm an atmospheric disturbance, often with wind, rain, and lightning straight ..... free from curves, bends, angles, or irregularities straining ..... passing through a strainer; filtering; or, exerting all effort strengthened ..... made stronger stretched ..... lengthened, widened by pulling or distended by blowing up stretcher ..... a canvas-covered frame used to transport the sick or wounded strictly ..... precisely; accurately; exactly; stringently strife ..... violent and bitter conflict; a struggle between rivals struggling ..... exerting energy; wrestling; strenuously contending or competing stubborn ..... obstinate; unduly determined to exert one's own will; persistent stupidity ..... the state, quality, or fact of being mentally dull and foolish stupor ..... a state of reduced sensibility; lethargy; mental confusion; daze subdued ..... conquered; subjugated; quieted and brought under control subjection ..... the act of subjecting; the state of being under control sublime ..... exalted; lofty; awe-inspiring submerges ..... puts under water submissive ..... inclined or ready to submit; unresistingly or humbly obedient subsequent ..... following in time or order; succeeding subsided ..... sank to a lower level; abated successors ..... those who succeed or follow after others sucklings ..... young, unweaned children sufferings ..... the things suffered by a person or group of people summarized ..... restated briefly, concisely, and in condensed form summit ..... top, highest point, especially of a mountain summoned ..... called together; convened; sent for; ordered to appear in court superior ..... higher in rank, station, or authority; of a higher nature superscription ..... that which is written above or on something supplications ..... humble prayers, entreaties, or petitions, often kneeling surnamed ..... given a special name related to a characteristic or achievement surplus ..... in excess of what is needed or required surroundings ..... things around a person; circumstances; conditions; environment swaddling-cloths ..... long, narrow strips of cloth for wrapping an infant swamped ..... filled with water; caused to sink as in a swamp; or, overwhelmed swear ..... to make a solemn declaration or promise; to assert under oath swearing ..... affirming earnestly and appealing to God for confirmation swept ..... cleaned or cleared as with a broom swiftly ..... rapidly; moving with speed; quickly swindlers .....those who cheat or defraud others out of money or property sympathize .....to feel or express compassion; to share another's feelings sympathy .....mutual understanding between two people; compassion synagogues .....buildings for Jewish worship and religious instruction tale-bearer .....a person who spreads gossip and destructive rumors tanner .....a person who tans hides tarnished .....transitive verb: dulled the luster; diminished the purity of .....intransitive verb: grew dull or discolored; lost luster tarried .....delayed; lingered tassels .....dangling ornaments consisting of loose threads bound at one end tattlers .....those who reveal the secrets of others taunted .....jeered or challenged mockingly temple .....a building dedicated to the worship or presence of a deity temptation .....something that tempts, entices, or allures tempted .....enticed to commit an unwise or immoral act

Tempter .....one who tempts to evil; Satan; the devil tenant .....one who temporarily occupies property owned by another terribly .....in a terrible manner; extremely territories .....geographic areas under the rule of governmental authorities testimony .....a declaration or affirmation of truth; the precepts of God tetrarch .....one of four joint rulers in a province in the Roman empire thanksgiving .....an act of giving thanks; an expression of gratitude to God thefts .....acts of stealing or larceny therefore .....consequently; hence; for that reason thistles .....various prickly plants usually with purple flowers thorn-bush .....a thorny shrub thoroughly .....fully done; completely threshing .....beating with a flail to remove the grain or seeds from chaff throughout .....everywhere; through every part of thunderous .....producing thunder or a loud noise like thunder tithe .....a tenth part tolerate .....permit; to allow without opposing or prohibiting topaz .....a multi-colored mineral found with granite, valued as a gemstone torment ..... noun: great pain or anguish; a source of harassment ..... verb: to cause great pain or anguish; to agitate greatly tormentors ..... those agitate and cause great pain or anguish toward ..... in the direction of; facing tradition ..... any time-honored practice; an element of culture passed down traitor ..... one who betrays his country, a cause, or a trust trampled ..... stepped on heavily, noisily, or crushingly trance ..... a hypnotic or ecstatic state; a state of detachment from one's physical environment transferred ..... conveyed or changed from one place to another transformed ..... changed in form, appearance, or nature transgression ..... violation of a law or command; sin translation ..... the rendering of something from one language to another treachery ..... willful betrayal of a trust; treason treasures ..... valuables such as jewels that have been accumulated or stored treasury ..... a place where wealth is kept or stored tribes ..... groups of people sharing a common ancestry, culture, and name tribute ..... money paid by one ruler to another as a sign of submission trickery ..... the use of crafty, underhanded tricks or ploys to deceive troublemaker ..... one who habitually stirs up trouble trough ..... a long, narrow receptacle holding food or water for animals trumpet ..... a wind instrument consisting of a metal tube flared at one end trustee ..... a person who controls and administers property for a beneficiary typhoon ..... a severe tropical hurricane in the western Pacific or China Sea unapproachable . not capable of being approached; unreachable; remote unbecomingly .... in an unbecoming, unseemly, inappropriate, unattractive manner unbelief ..... lack of religious belief; incredulity; skepticism unblemished ..... without flaw or disfigurement unchangeable ..... immutable; incapable of being changed or altered uncleanness ..... state of being foul, dirty, morally defiled, or unclean uncontrollable .... incapable of being controlled or governed unconvicted ..... not found guilty of a crime or offense; unaware of one's sins undeniably ..... in a manner that cannot be denied or refuted; unquestionably undergo ..... to experience; to be subjected to; to endure understanding ..... the quality of comprehension; discernment; mental grasp unexpectedly ..... in a surprising, unforeseen manner; without warning unfading ..... without loss of brightness, brilliance, or strength unfailing ..... not failing; not giving way; not falling short of expectation unfastened ..... separated from connecting parts unhindered ..... not held back; unhampered; not delayed or prevented uninformed ..... not informed, told, advised, notified, or apprised unique..... none other like it or Him; most special, different than all others unitedly ..... in a united manner, joined together, combined as one unjustly ..... unfairly; in a manner lacking in justice or fairness unknowingly ..... ignorantly; without knowing; without awareness unnatural ..... not natural; contrary to nature or the course of nature unnoticed ..... not noticed; without getting attention or being observed unoccupied ..... not occupied; not dwelt in or lived in; or, not busy; unemployed unpresentable ..... unfit to be presented, given, displayed, or offered unquenchable ..... incapable of being put out or extinguished unreasonable ..... not in accord with sound thinking; absurd; foolish; nonsensical unreasoning ..... not exercising reason; thoughtless; irrational unregretted ..... not regretted; not sorry; not distressed about unruly ..... difficult or impossible to govern; not submissive to rule unsettled ..... not fixed or stable; continuously moving; wavering or uncertain unshakable ..... incapable of being shaken, dislodged, caused to doubt or waver unshrunk ..... not shrunk, reduced in size, or caused to contract in washing unstained ..... not stained or spotted; unsoiled; without blemish unsuccessfully ..... without success; without succeeding unsuspecting ..... not suspecting; not considered with suspicion untraceable ..... not capable of being traced; not attributable or ascribable untrustworthy ..... not deserving of trust or confidence; not dependable or reliable unwilling ..... not willing; reluctant; averse; opposed; loathe unwillingly ..... in an unwilling, reluctant manner upbuilding ..... building up by increasing, enlarging, or fortifying uproar ..... a tumult; a condition of confusion and noisy excitement uprooted ..... torn or removed from the ground; eradicated; destroyed utter ..... verb: to say; to express audibly

..... adjective: complete; total; absolute utterly ..... in an utter manner; completely; totally; absolutely varieties ..... a number of different types of things; kinds; sorts various ..... of diverse kinds; several that are unlike or different veil ..... anything that conceals, separates, or screens vengeance ..... retribution; retaliation for wrong or injury; getting even verdict ..... a conclusion or judgment vindicate ..... to clear of accusation or blame; to justify violent ..... displaying extreme emotional or physical force; severe; harsh virgin ..... a chaste, pure, unsoiled, unmarried woman voluntary ..... arising from one's own free will; acting by choice vowed ..... promised, pledged, or declared formally vultures ..... large black scavenger birds with naked heads and necks wail ..... to grieve or lament with a high-pitched, mournful sound wailed ..... grieved, lamented, mourned, or protested audibly wallowing ..... rolling the body about as in water, snow, or mud wanton ..... immoral, lewd, or unchaste wash ..... to cleanse, using water or other liquid, usually with soap watchings ..... times of waiting and watching expectantly and with anticipation waterless ..... devoid of water; dry wearisome ..... causing physical or mental fatigue; tiresome; tedious well-founded ..... having a foundation in fact; based on good reasons and information well-pleasing ..... very pleasing whip ..... a flexible instrument such as a cord or thong used for whipping whirlwind ..... a small mass of air rotating rapidly around a vertical axis white-washed ..... coated with lime and water to cover up defects, faults, and flaws whoever ..... anyone that; whatever person; no matter who whose ..... the possessive form of the relative pronoun "who"

wick ..... a cord of fibers that draws up oil or fuel to be burned wickedness ..... a quality or state of being evil or morally bad widespread ..... distributed over a wide region; occurring among many people will.....the conscience way of man; God's Will is the sovereign, correct Way for man to reform his will to please Him in worship and service willfully ..... deliberately; intentionally; stubbornly; obstinately windstorm ..... a storm of heavy wind with little or no precipitation winepress ..... an apparatus used to press juice from grapes for making wine wineskins ..... vessels made of the skins of goats, used for holding wine winnowing ..... separating the chaff from the grain by means of a current of air wishing ..... wanting, desiring, longing for something; expressing such desire withered ..... dried up or shriveled as from the loss of moisture witnessing ..... seeing or hearing something; testifying as an eye-witness wobbly ..... shaky, unsteady woe ..... deep sorrow; grief; misfortune; affliction; anguish; tribulation womb ..... the uterus of a female; a place where something is formed wondering ..... feeling awe or admiration; feeling puzzled or curious

Word ..... a biblical name for Jesus as the eternal Son of God word-battles ..... verbal fights using words as weapons workmanship ..... the art, skill, or technique of a workman wormwood ..... a bitter, aromatic herb worshiped ..... reverently honored, praised, and paid homage to a divine being worthless ..... without value; useless wove ..... interlaced the threads of the weft and warp on a loom wrangle ..... to dispute angrily and noisily; to quarrel wranglings ..... quarrels; angry disputes wreaths ..... rings or circlets of flowers or leaves wrongdoer .....one who does wrong wrongdoing .....behavior or action that is wrong, evil, or blameworthy yearning .....deep longing accompanied by tenderness or sadness yielded .....surrendered; submitted yoke .....a crossbar with two U-shaped pieces that encircle the necks of two draft animals, especially oxen yokefellow .....an intimate associate; a work-partner yourself .....a form of the second person pronoun used reflexively